Enjoy this short poem: "This Room" by John Ashbery

The room I entered was a dream of this room.
Surely all those feet on the sofa were mine.
The oval portrait
of a dog was me at an early age.
Something shimmers, something is hushed up.

We had macaroni for lunch every day except Sunday, when a small quail was induced to be served to us. Why do I tell you these things?
You are not even here.
